

Concert!

What? a night of music and entertainment to raise funds for Latafale Auva'a and her journey in the Miss Universe competition.

When? Sunday 29th July

Where? George St School Hall

Entry fee? Gold Coin donation

How can you help? We need some performers! So here's the call out to anyone who sings, dances, writes poems, plays an instrument or does some great stand up comedy! If you do something creative, we want to see it! Get your family band together, dust off those dancing shoes and get involved! Share your God given gifts and talents!

Further details: If you're interested in performing, email either Latafale (latafale.a@gmail.com) or Hannah (hthompsonholloway@gmail.com) and let us know what you'd like to do and we can talk details. This will be a great event to invite friends to and an awesome opportunity to perform!

Raffle: If your talents lie in other areas like making crafts or decorating gorgeous cupcakes, you could help us create a raffle hamper, with tickets sold and winning number drawn on the night.

Please email Fale or Hannah if that sounds more like your cup of tea. So calling all those young or old, wise or foolish, give it a go! Get in touch with us, share your gifts!

"Teaching, Toast and Testimony"

Kristin will lead a session on

'Clear, Compassionate Communication'

We'll be looking at a communication model that's all about the healthy processing of conflict and of feelings, as opposed to avoiding conflict or inadvertently finding ourselves caught up in it and then not knowing what to do. Once we understand the invisible dynamic that drives conflict, it becomes much easier to manage. It can move from being something we fear, to becoming a stepping stone to healthier and stronger relationships.
