CEO Appointment - Presbyterian Support Otago

Presbyterian Support
Otago

The PSO Board is pleased to announce that Joanne Rowe has been appointed as Chief Executive Officer at Presbyterian Support Otago. Jo has been CEO at Mornington Health Centre and has 20 years of experience in senior roles in the health industry, in New Zealand and the UK. She has been involved with Alzheimers Society at a local and national level. Her career includes time as Practice Manager at Servants Health Centre in Dunedin.

Jo is a Registered Nurse and holds a Master of Health Science, Master of Management (Health Service management) and BA in Psychology. Along with her family, Jo is a member of Dunedin City Baptist Church.

“I am a mum of four, ranging in ages from 9 to 21 and am married to Jason, a Corrections Officer. I love to run marathons and am an avid reader and researcher,” writes Jo.

“As a Christian I have been privileged to work, and volunteer through the years for several organisations who provide care in many facets to members of the community in need. This is an important part of who I am, and essentially drives my energy and enthusiasm for transformation in our social environment.”

Jo will join PSO as CEO on Monday, 2 September.
