

Thanks

Dear CCG supporters and friends,

As a group, we wanted to take this opportunity to thank all the groups and churches in the campus area who contributed in some way to representing Jesus on campus during O-Week. This may have been having people in the CCG tent during the three days and nights, having people help with setup, contributing baking and food to nourish our students, displaying your wonderful posters, having a tent presence at the museum reserve, and for the prayers that gave all of these things a strong foundation. See photos below so you can see the CCG tent in action.

We also gave away hundreds of the 2020 Scarfie guides which will hopefully connect many students with the great communities that you all provide. Our next CCG meeting is at 11am on Thursday 26th March at the Upper Room on Uni Campus. A time of prayer, supporting and connecting with others who are doing Jesus' mahi, and planning for how we can best be His hands and feet on campus this year. EVERYONE is welcome, we would love to see you.

Arohanui,
Steve, on behalf of the CCG

Notices

ATTENTION TEENAGERS!

Are you thinking about getting baptised? Or would you like to learn a bit more about what it means? Rachel Bates will be running three Sunday afternoon sessions beginning 22 March to look at the whys and whats of baptism, church, faith and anything else you want to talk about. There is no pressure to be baptised after that but if you decide you want to, you can! Email or phone Rachel to find out more. 0277377295/
