

Easter Sunday ~ He is Risen!

A Lame Man Walked (Acts 3)

Lord, a lame man walked, grasped two strong hands, that
held him,
while sinews strengthened
and limbs locked,
then threw them off...
stepped, ran, leapt.
Hallelujah.

Lord, a lame man walked,
and that began a murmur,
that for the sake of law and order
and the voluntarily blind
it really would be better if the lame remained lame
and the dead remained dead.
Lord have mercy.

Lord, a lame man walked,
and the people praised,
the prostitutes grinned,
the children chuckled,
the mothers smiled.
for they realised that what you
said was true-
there is love and life and laughter.

Maranatha

Lord, a lame man walked,
and two friends of yours rejoiced,
nudged one another,
and praised God-
for they knew that no Golgotha could restrain the Lord of Life.
Hallelujah.

Clare Lind

FAITH THINKING (1)

On Wednesday April 14, 7:00 - 8:15pm

a free "Faith Thinking on Zoom" session is offered:

"A case study of an evangelical congregation that has coped in a creative way with the challenge of LGBTQ+ issues"

This is by Rev Dr Lynne Baab, Author and Former Jack Somerville Senior Lecturer in Pastoral Theology, Theology Programme, University of Otago.

Some further details: An evangelical congregation in Seattle wanted to welcome LGBTQ+ people as well as make space for members who hold a conservative interpretation of the Bible on that topic. Through a congregational discernment process, God led them to a unique policy. Lynne Baab, a member of that church who has lived for more than a decade in New Zealand, explains how this model works.

To register go here: <https://www.otago.ac.nz/continuingeducation/index.html> and click on "Register online".

Note - the session is free but you need to register so that we can email you the Zoom link (which will be sent to you, along with instructions.)
