

Richard's Corner

The more I reflect on resisting evil the more I realize that the very act of taking a stand is often enough for evil to be thoroughly undone. Often the greatest weapon evil has in its arsenal is the deceit around how strong or how vital a certain evil it. The very thought that a certain evil cannot be overcome or cannot be resisted is often enough to guarantee that evil prospers. The giant Goliath, the walls of Jericho, the Red Sea and the Jordan all looked invincible until someone was willing to stand up to them and then they crumbled or gave way with barely a finger raised in their defense. And today we must remember that no evil stands with ultimate power even if sometimes evil can resist for while. The question is, are we willing to speak the truth about such evil and stay wedded to the truth while others ridicule us. This also is a common theme in the fight against evil—the ridicule of those who are not prepared to admit the truth or make a stand against evil. However, let us not use the tactics of evil to face evil. The Bible is also against mockery and abuse and I suspect many good protest movements and some journalists resort to this quickly in an attempt to forward their cause. I don't think this works. Proverbs 22 says... 'Drive out the mocker, and out goes strife; quarrels and insults are ended.' Using evil to defeat evil is a dangerous and dubious tactic. Better to stick with the truth delivered from a calm but determined heart. Then we model what lies behind the truth we speak and this reinforces our claim to be heard. The Bible says 'Resist the devil and he will flee from you.' How important this is.

Welcome to our service

- + If you are new or visiting, we hope you'll stay for some morning tea so we can get to know you.
- + Please make sure you have picked up your copy of the new roster from the notices table.
- + Parents, please remember it is your responsibility to ensure your children are adequately supervised after the service. Two to five year olds must be collected from Junior Kidztime by an adult.

So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger.

Giving to the Philippines

Dear Friends,

As you know on Friday the 8th 'super-typhoon' Haiyan (called 'Yolanda' locally) slammed into the islands of Leyte and Samar in the Philippines, killing thousands and leaving millions homeless and basic necessities. Servants, which has a long history of working in the Philippines, is encouraging Christians to give through the Tear Fund network. Servants is also accepting donations, which it will pass on to smaller local NGO's working in areas we perceive are being missed by the larger relief operation (note donations to Servants for overseas needs are not tax deductible, whereas for Tear Fund they are). If you go to www.servantsasia.org, you'll find a good description (with links) of the groups we encourage you to give to. Many thanks, Kristin

Mary Meets Mohammad

"Tasmania's first asylum seeker detention centre opens and local Christian woman Mary is skeptical of the 400 male asylum seekers from Afghanistan. However, after her knitting club donates beanies to the asylum seekers she returns regularly to visit and unexpectedly finds herself in regular contact with Mohammad, a 26 year old Muslim. A true story about challenging beliefs, about fear and about love.

Screens in Dunedin Rialto Cinema from December 5.
