SERVICE

There is nothing quite so revealing as a person's willingness to serve. True service is a journey downwards; a journey to our ultimate humiliation because as we give to others we make ourselves their servants and we cannot be 'lords' or 'ladies' from this position.

Christ made himself the servant of all, the lowest of the low simply by serving the lowest of low in His earthly society and we have no right to expect we should be any different. The Church was born to serve, not to be served and we are, above all else, creatures of the church – born to live out its mandate to follow and serve.

This may seem to be galling and a frustration but our whole aim and goal as Christians is to be like Christ and service is how we achieve this. Amongst other things this means we cannot be obsessed with 'winning' - whatever that is. Service requires that those who follow lay down their crowns.

As we press into service the Spirit finds room in our heart to take up residence.

Without service we remain closed to the Spirit.

Albert Tozer says that 'We can afford to follow Him to failure. Faith dares to fail. The resurrection and the judgment will demonstrate before all worlds who won and who lost. We can wait.'

Dare you give yourself to service today. Do it!
You will discover Christ along the way.

We were all greatly energised by the Global Leadership Summit (GLS) held yesterday and the day before. There was some fantastic teaching and great tips and ideas to go away with. Richard and the organising team would like to thank all the volunteers who helped make it a success: technical people, those who helped with registrations, serving morning and afternoon teas, donating food, setting up and packing down etc. All help was greatly appreciated!!
